Subject: Invitation to participate in the inaugural function of 'Netaji-Bangabandhu Janchetana Yatra' as a distinguished speaker and Guest.

Respected Madhushree Hatial ji,

Sincere greetings from Netaji-Bangabandhu Janchetana Yatra Implementation Committee, Bangladesh. As you are aware, Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose and Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, two undisputed great leaders of the freedom struggle are equally revered both in India and Bangladesh. The two friendly countries are holding various programs to celebrate the 125th birth anniversary of Netaji and the birth centenary of Bangabandhu on these two grand occasions. Netaji and Bangabandhu admirers from Bangladesh have undertaken a program to visit the places associated with the memory of the two great leaders, through which the contributions & the sacrifices made by the two great legends will be presented to the younger generation.

The main program of The Netaji-Bangabandhu Janchetana Yatra has been taken on 4th December 2021 at Jatiya Kabi Kazi Narul Islam University (JKKNIU) & Bangladesh Agriculture University (BAU) in Mymensingh. You, being a great Netaji devotee and Organizer, are invited as Guest at this event. Your participation will play a vital role in making this event a success. We believe that this event will further strengthen the bonds of harmony and friendship that exist between the people of Bangladesh and India.

The Anthropology Department, National Museum-New Delhi expresses sincere gratitude for your valuable contribution to the National Museum initiative titled "We the Community." The Museum promotes rich cultural heritage of our country through this virtual project. Your valuable input enlightens the vision of this initiative to make the museum collection contextual and accessible to a broader audience and amplify the indigenous voices. It aims to encourage the community people to share tangible and intangible aspects of cultural heritage and make the stories of ethnic specimens housed at the Anthropology Department of the National Museum accessible to the public. We, at the National Museum thank you for your collaboration in this program as an esteemed resource person with great expertise in the field of folk music of West Bengal, India. In this letter of appreciation, the Department declares to be a recipient of two video recordings of Jhumur and Manasa Mangal performance; a folk tradition of West Bengal.

The Anthropology Department at the National Museum, New Delhi is looking forward to future collaborations with you.

Dear Ms Madhushree Hatilal Ji,

Greetings from the Asian Heritage Foundation!

At the outset, we would like to inform you that our Foundation has been working on a project for over a decade long grant support from Japan Social Development Fund administered by The World Bank. The pioneering project, now in its second phase (Creating inclusive business models for the marginalized tribal communities of Jharkhand, Odisha and Madhya Pradesh) has reached out to around 3000 beneficiaries, 600 prototypes and the project is finally coming to close on 9th October 2019.

As per the project deliverables, we have set up Three Vibrant Producer Groups in Jharkhand i.e. Jiyo Mahila Mandal, Hazaribagh, Jiyo Mahila Mandal, Gumla and Jiyo Kulahi Bamboo Utpadan Samuha, Gumla with over 200 artisans, who have been trained by the Foundation through various capacity building workshops i.e. Skill enhancement, Design development, Costing and Pricing, E-commerce enablement, Setting up Common facility centers with state of the art facilities in the state (A brief presentation on the project interventions is enclosed)

The Foundation is organizing a three day Mandar Mahua Mela from 8th to 10th October during which the Jiyo Mahila Mandal Common Facility centre at Taisera village, Gumla will be inaugurated and handed over to the Producer group on 8th October 2019 at 17.00 hours. This facility will be a nodal rural centre for the Foundation in Jharkhand, where all production and value addition will be undertaken.

The Mela will witness the Mandar Kumbh, Sarva Bhoj and a small haat for Jani and Jiva products and women will demonstrate local recipes etc.

We request you to be our Guest for the inaugural day at 12.30 PM on 8th Oct 2019. The invitation is enclosed detailing the events scheduled for your kind perusal.

The members will be highly motivated by your presence and look forward for your confirmation.

Many thanks in Advance
